FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DATE 1ST APRIL 2009

New Principal at Hillier Hopkins LLP

We are delighted to announce that Simon Speller, an Associate of the firm, will be joining Hillier Hopkins LLP as a Member (Principal) with effect from 1st April 2009.

Simon originally joined constituent firm Badger Hakim as a trainee and remained with the firm throughout his professional career, joining Hillier Hopkins as an Associate upon the merger in 2008.

On accepting his new role Simon commented, "I'm really pleased that I've been asked to play a bigger part in the firm. It's a very progressive practice so I'm looking forward to discussing ideas and having more input into the development and growth of the London office".

Simon is an experienced general practitioner specialising in audit and advice to SME companies with considerable experience in the audit of collective investment funds. Currently he is closely involved with developing the practice whilst controlling his own client base, which he has built up over the last couple of years.
